

Jewish Community Alliance

8505 San Jose Blvd

Jacksonville, Fla. 32217

News Release

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CONTACT: Iman Byfield 730-2100 ext. 223

Date: February 4, 2019

JCA Young Concert Artists Series Welcomes Pianist Nathan Lee

On Sunday, Feb. 17 at 2 p.m., the JCA welcomes pianist Nathan Lee for the JCA Young Concert Artists Series. This event is sponsored by the Berman Family and is free and open to the community. For details, call 904-730-2100 ext. 228. Registration is appreciated.

“With a fluid technique and good musical instincts, [Lee] gave lively, articulate accounts of Bach and Mozart, showed a flair for jazz with Nikolai Kapustin, and tossed off the virtuosic challenges of Grünfeld’s concert paraphrase of “Die Fledermaus.” — The New York Times

“Lee is immensely self-assured, his relaxed demeanor due no doubt to the ample technical resources at his disposal. His playing is virtually note perfect. His Bach, for instance, was poised, well mannered, and a model of clarity.” — The Washington Post

Nathan Lee began playing piano at the age of six and made his orchestral debut at the age of nine. At 15, he won First Prize at the 2016 Young Concert Artists International Auditions and holds the Mortimer Levitt Piano Chair of Young Concert Artists. Lee made his New York debut at sixteen in the Peter Marino Concert, opening the Young Concert Artists Series at Zankel Hall at Carnegie Hall. The Korean Concert Society Prize sponsored Lee’s sold-out, critically-acclaimed Kennedy Center debut in Washington, D.C.

Young Concert Artists, Inc. is a nonprofit organization dedicated to discovering and launching the careers of exceptional, but unknown, young artists from around the world.

###