Downtown mural dedication ceremony will be held at 7:30 p.m. Friday at the Hogan Land Title building

STEVE SMITH
SSMITH@LACLEDERECORD.COM

A dedication ceremony for a new mural celebrating the history and heritage of Lebanon will be held at 7:30 p.m. Friday at the Hogan Land Title building on Commercial Street.

The mural includes references to the community's schools, Bennett Spring, the Native Americans who settled in the land before the area was known as Lebanon, local industry and wildlife.

Lebanon High School Art Teacher Eric Adams, who helped supervise the project, said the ceremony will be held in an open space next to the mural at Commercial and Washington.

"The reason we're doing it at 7:30 p.m. is after we have the dedication ceremony, we're going to showcase a documentary featuring Eleanor Ford," Adams said.

Ford, a longtime school librarian in the community, is among those represented in the mural.

"This video was produced by a student," Adams said. "Over the last six months after interviewing over 40 Lebanon residents."

Organizers are hoping that people who knew Ford and people with connections to the Osage Nation will attend Friday's ceremony.

Adams said the goal of the art department was to promote Lebanon as a tourist destination and recognize the rich history of the area.

"We want to give kids enrichment and motivation, but also tie that in with the rich history of Lebanon," he said.

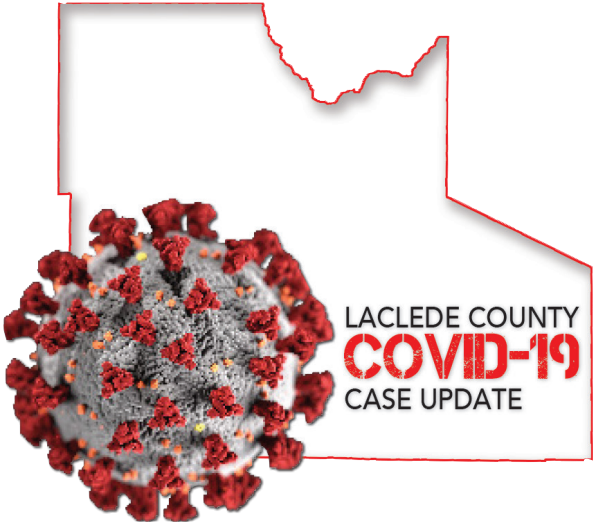

The public is welcome to attend. The outdoor event will be held weather permitting.

The mural was painted by high school students on the Hogan Land Title building, 288 East Commercial. Local artist Nichelle Mitchell was among those contributing to the project.

Morgan Community Area Happenings

Did you all have a nice relaxing week or was it hectic and on the run? It seems mine was hectic.. Tuesday I took Mom to Springfield to her kidney doctor. We stopped by the " Farmers Market." I didn't really see many farmers though. They had lots of produce. I got a watermelon. They also had onions called candy sweet onions. I had to try some of those too. I really didn't think they were any sweeter than any other onions though. Friday afternoon Chris, Mom and I went to the Amish stores again. I enjoy seeing the different things they get in their stores.

Saturday evening Chris took my sister's pickup to a friend to get some repairs done. So Mom and I followed him to Lynchburg to pick him up. We went on to Plato Cafe and ate supper. I had never been there. I didn't even know there was a Plato Cafe. So in case you're interested there is. Sunday Kyle, Marshal and Aiden came down and spent the day. By tonight this Mimi is worn out. I forget how tired you get chasing a 1 year old and a 6 year old. I enjoy spending time with them though. They are growing up too fast. Aiden picked up a sack today and handed it to me and take that.--Penny Dame.

Leona Medlock, Bertha Terry and Marjorie Welch went to Morgan on Saturday to have a salad and fresh melon lunch with Greg and Shirley Reid.

Be aware that the Helping Hand Club will be holding their bake sale at the Morgan Store on Sept. 12 starting at 8 a.m.

The Helping Hand Club Community picnic was last Saturday at the home of Reggie and Star Terry. Almost 40 people showed up with salads, hot dishes and desserts to share. Reggie Terry and Scott Moulder manned the grill and Star, Angel Rader and Crystal Dismang took turns in the kitchen. The weather was almost perfect and the kids from 2 months to teenagers all spent much of their time outside. Some of the teens even went to help Reggie feed the cows while Bobby wandered around getting her ears scratched wherever she could. It was a most enjoyable afternoon and the Helping Hand Club gives a well-deserved thank you to Reggie and Star.

The Helping Hand Club photo will be taken on Aug. 19 at noon. Please try to be there as this will be on our calendars for 2021.

St. Paul's Lutheran in Marshfield celebrated the 100 birthday of Norma Cook on Sunday afternoon. Her birthday is actually on the 13th but Sunday was the best time to get family and friends together.

Last Sunday Howard and Dee Twyman went to visit Doyle and Betty Stokes and treated the Stokes family to peach cobbler. Betty is not always feeling great, but she does come to quilting when she can and they are always so happy to see her.

Thank you to all the gardeners who are sharing the produce from their gardens. I have witnessed lots of transfers of green beans, melons of all kinds, cucumbers, squash and even some rhubarb, corn and tomatoes.

May each of you be blessed for sharing your bounty with others. --Diane Whitwer

Atchley Park will be filled with all kinds of fun activities this weekend, as local Cub Scout Packs try to recruit young boys and girls with a love of adventure and the outdoors to join Boy Scouts of America.

Cub Scout Packs 2557 and 57 are inviting boys and girls in kindergarten through 5th grade to attend their annual event Saturday in celebration of Scout Recruitment Week.

Those interested in signing up for Cub Scouts can attend the event from 10 a.m. to noon at Atchley Park.

The groups have several activities planned during the event. Activities will be based on the child's age. Lion Scouts (kindergarteners) will build towers, Tiger Scouts (youth who have completed kindergarten or are 7 years old) will build a boat, Wolf Scouts (youth who have completed first grader or are 8 years old) will study air flow by making a harmonica and Webelos (those who have completed third grade or are 10 years old) will build and shoot off soda rockets.

Parents can register online at www.beascout.org.

For more information, contact Pack 2557 Cub Master Joy Owen at 573-873-4677 and Pack 57 Cub Master Linda Jackson at 417-773-1203.

Vandals damage property at Lebanon High School

EDITOR@LACLEDERECORD.COM

The Lebanon Police Department is investigating a slew of vandalism at Lebanon High School.

Sometime last week, vandals caused havoc at the Lebanon High School. Someone busted 75 light bulbs, cut the softball field backstop in two places, threw a board through a car windshield, broke out the windows on a private contractor's bucket truck and poured 100 pounds of fertilizer on a lawn mower. The entire backstop net will have to be replaced, according to Lebanon R-3 School District Director of Communications Jacy Overstreet. At press time, there was no estimate on the cost of the damage. Lebanon Police Department Public Information Officer Kacie Springer said there are multiple suspects being sought in the investigation. A report of the incident was not available at press time. According to the LPD, the report was still being processed.

The schedule for the day includes practice for both ARCA Menards Series and ARCA/CRA Super Series, ARCA Menards Series General Tire Pole Qualifying and the 200 lap main event, which starts at 8 p.m. The race will be televised live on MAVTV and streamed live on TrackPass on NBC Sports Gold. The second race will take place Sept. 6. The ARCA/CRA Super Series will have a 100-lap feature. They were originally scheduled to race at Winchester Speedway, but the race was moved to Lebanon when the annual Labor Day Stock Car Festival was canceled. The race will be streamed live on Speed51. Unemployment drops again in June

Laclede County had a 10.4 percent unemployment rate in June after hitting a 30-year high in April

After record highs in April, the Laclede County unemployment rate continues to tick down. The Missouri Economic Research and Information Center reports that the Laclede County area had an unemployment rate of 10.4 percent for June. The rate is nearly 2 percent less than May and more than 4 percent less than the April high of 14.9 percent. Laclede County continues to have a higher unemployment than the state average, but is below the national average. In June, the state reported a 7.9 percent unemployment rate while the national rate is at 11.2 percent. The country hit a high of 14.4 percent in April while the state hit nearly 10 percent, according to the data. Although the numbers are going down, Laclede County has an unemployment rate that is more than double what it was last year. In June 2019, Laclede County had a 4.1 percent unemployment rate, the data shows. July jobs numbers will be available at the end of August.

Increased law enforcement will be out for annual Drive Sober or Get Pulled Over

MISSOURI DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION

Choosing to drive impaired, or ride with someone who is, is not worth the risk and the consequences are real. The Missouri Coalition for Roadway Safety wants to inform motorists that this year's Drive Sober or Get Pulled Over campaign will run from August 21 through September 7. In an increased effort to keep Missouri's roadways safer, law enforcement will be on the lookout for impaired drivers during this time.

The goal is to remind all motorists that driving impaired is a bad decision—and a bad decision that should never be made. Preliminary 2019 data indicates that 184 people were killed and 590 seriously injured in crashes that involved at least one substance-impaired driver. To learn more about substance-impaired driving and how you can Arrive Alive, visit saveMOLives.com, or follow social media at Save MO Lives, #DriveSoberMO.

Iowa cousins meet at Cross Roads Cemetery

Congratulations to Cody and Chrissy Daniel on the arrival of Craten Lee on July 28. He weighed in at 7 lbs. 9 oz. and 19 inches long. His maternal grandparents are Tim and Angie Blankenship. Maternal great-grandparents are Ronnie and Judy Pierce (first time) and paternal grandparents are Bobby and Joanie Daniel and Kennie and Virginia Huff, and great-grandparent, Verlin Daniel. We are excited!

Many family and friends traveled to Fulton Friday for the celebration of life of Evelyn (Reid) Nelson. She grew up in this area and attended Cross Roads School and church in her younger years and met her husband Gene Nelson at Cross Roads Church. She was a precious friend, full of the love of Jesus, always had encouraging words, and had a great love for Jesus, family and friends. She left a great legacy and influenced many people. Let's think about how we are an influence to those around us. In all things we need to glorify our Heavenly Father. She was a great friend and an influence in my life. Our loss is Heaven's gain.

Another one of our favorite people, Jan Eilenstein retired Friday after 41 years employed by Durham Company. Our congratulations and best wishes on a new adventure, Jan! This makes me feel old (you were one of my Sunday School boys as a teen)! Wait! I am old — (what was I thinking) but young at heart! Speaking of our Sunday School class, our congratulations and best of God's blessing to Shyla Jessup and Jacob Collins who were actually married May 23 but had their wedding on Aug. 8 so their family and friends could celebrate with them. The bride was beautiful as well as the ceremony performed by Bro. Timothy Howe. They already said their vows, so friends and families made a commitment to pray and be an encouragement to them and they made a commitment to us. It was beautiful! Looking forward to attending the wedding of our grandson Austin Harris and Jenna Mills on Sept. 12.

Recently, I had the neatest thing happen! I got a call from a cousin who lives in Iowa. She said she was at Cross Roads Cemetery and would like to visit with me. I was in town, so we hurried home. To my surprise, there were three sisters waiting to see me. I was so excited, I had never met them. They were the daughters of my first cousin, Merle Breakfield of Carson, Iowa (Rosetta, Teri and Beth). I had never met them before — so it was so neat that they looked me up and got to visit and take pictures. My dad, Coleman Murrell and their Grandma Melzena Breakfield was brother and sister. Loved it! Our granddaughter, Megan Adams is a new employee of Harbor Freight. She is also still enrolled in classes.

Recently Betty Lathrop and I enjoyed attending the 150th anniversary of Antioch Baptist Church. Bro. Larry Atkins was guest speaker in the morning service. We enjoyed the afternoon. --Judy Pierce

Dear Abby

Wife Looks for Words to Heal Man Cut Down by His Mother

DEAR ABBY: My husband's mother recently told him he no longer matters to her because he is an atheist. His mother is supposedly a Christian, but she rarely acts like one. It has left my husband devastated and feeling more lonely than ever.

I can't find the right words to comfort him when he's going through something I haven't got a clue about. How do I empathize with him to let him know he did nothing wrong and that he never deserved to have those words thrown at him by his own mother?

It infuriates me, but I don't think it would be right for me to step in and talk to her directly. How do you deal with a narcissist who constantly plays the victim even after all the support you've given to her, financially and emotionally?

SUPPORTIVE WIFE IN ALABAMA

DEAR WIFE: I'm glad you asked. Explain to your husband that by emotionally abusing him this way, his mother is attempting to control him. What she said is despicable, and if he is as emotionally dependent on her as you have described, he may need counseling to get past this. The way to deal with her emotional blackmail is to distance yourselves from her financially and emotionally, because she is manipulative and toxic.

DEAR ABBY: I have a medical alert service dog. People at the store won't leave him alone to do his job, and I don't know what to do. I don't want to be rude to these people, but my life depends on his alerting. Each time I must shop for groceries, I am very afraid. Advice? NO PETTING IN PENNSYLVANIA

DEAR NO PETTING: You are a nice person. Too nice, in fact. When someone attempts to distract your service animal, tell the person emphatically to stop immediately because he is on duty, working to ensure your safety, and being distracted could cost you your life. It is the truth.

Dear Abby is written by Abigail Van Buren, also known as Jeanne Phillips, and was founded by her mother, Pauline Phillips. Contact Dear Abby at www.DearAbby.com or P.O. Box 69440, Los Angeles, CA 90069
