General Bull Nelson subject of Shiloh hike

Shiloh National Military Park announces a special ranger led hike taking place Saturday, June 29.

Join Ranger Timothy Arnold for "Bull Nelson Pushes the Left."

The hike follows the path of Gen. William Nelson's Division from Wicker Field, through the Peach Orchard and into Sara Bell's cotton field on the second day of the battle. Hikers will learn about the forces and commanders involved on both sides as Nelson's quick advance is met by severe Confederate counter attacks.

The two mile hike on uneven terrain begins at Tour Stop 8, the Peach Orchard at 10 a.m. Appropriate clothing for the weather, comfortable walking shoes, water, and insect repellent are recommended.

Pre-registration is required. Call the Shiloh Visitor Center at 731-689-5696 any day of the week between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. to reserve a spot.

Hardin County Chamber of Commerce Executive Director DeLaney Timberman Martin welcomes guests to the 28th Annual Distinguished Service Awards on Thursday, June 20.

BACK TAXES OWED

The following is a list of unpaid Hardin County property taxes from 2013 through May 31, 2024 as shown by public records in the Hardin County Trustee’s Office and Chancery Court. This public information is published in an attempt to collect delinquent taxes.

After July 1, additional fees will be imposed on certain unpaid taxes. An effort has been made to remove those taxes and names that have been paid in full after May 31, 2024. The 2023 unpaid taxes are only listed if any previous year tax is also owed.

Should you find an error or if you no longer own a listed property, please contact the Trustee’s Office at 731-925-8180.
