We had a wonderful day at church Sunday at our Homecoming. Our youth did so good. Willa Jane read scripture Matt 2-1:2 and 2-10:11, Graylee sang and played her guitar, then Annslee sang "Away in a Manger." Ireland passed out little goodies to everyone and a good message by our pastor Bro. Tyler Webb was given. Thanks to the ladies for the plate of food they sent me and thanks to Colton Franks for bringing it to me. Sure was glad to have our visitors. I hope they will come again.

We want to send get well prayers and wishes and our love to Kelcey Franks who had a wreck last week and stayed in Vanderbilt Hospital in Nashville for several days. Glad she is home and doing well, but she still needs our prayers.

Shannon Talley from Stateburg, GA has been here this last week visiting her parents Fred and Karon Talley. They also visited with her grandmother Ruth Whitlow at Hardin County Center rehab.

A large number of family and friends gathered at the home of Tyler and Kelli Webb Sunday afternoon for a gender reveal celebration. All eyes were on the arrow when Tyler shot his bow and hit the bullseye. The pink ribbons went flying, what a great afternoon they all enjoyed. Best wishes to Tyler and Kelli.

Janice Smith and Cleathia Finley were in Jackson last week for a doctor appointment.

Have a blessed week.
