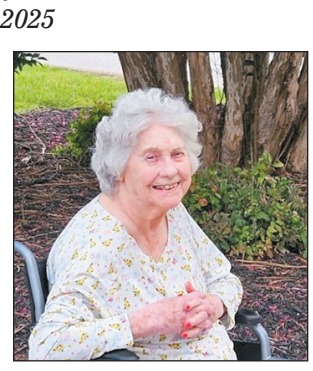
Lester Neal Carpenter
1975-2025

Lester Neal Carpenter, born February 4, 1975, in Trenton, Tennessee, was an embodiment of dedication, talent, and support. Lester, a retired lawn care specialist, was the heart and soul of Superior Lawn Maintenance, where his commitment to his craft was admired by many. His dedication was not just apparent in his profession, but in every aspect of his life, including his passions. Lester was a talented mechanic, often found tinkering on his beloved old Ford truck. His love for the outdoors was unparalleled, and he found joy in the simplicity of a fishing line, the tranquility of a camping trip, and the roar of a tractor's engine.

Lester's supportive side was most evident in his love for his family. As Mark Twain once said, "The secret of success is making your vocation your vacation," and this was true for Lester. His work was his hobby, and his hobby was his love, but above all, his family was his world. His grandchildren, Marshall, Charlie, Maddie, Evelyn, Shane, and Lillian Carpenter, were the apples of his eye. He loved spending time with them, imparting wisdom, and sharing laughter. Lester is survived by his mother, Florence Ann Shutes (Jerry), his sons, Zachary Carpenter (Sarah) and Nicholas Carpenter, his lifelong partner, Stacie Swindle, his brothers, Josh Ward, Joe Ward, and Ronnie Ward (Ashley), his sister, Candy Sheckles (Fain), his niece Kimber Ward and nephew Dalton Ward.

A memorial service to celebrate Lester's life will be held at a later date. Cremation services are under the direction of Ronk Funeral Home.

Mildred Faye Skelton
1935-2025



Mildred Faye Skelton, a loving beacon of strength and compassion in Alamo, Tennessee, departed this life on March 22, 2025, at the age of 89. Born on August 5, 1935, in Alamo, Mildred lived a life of service and devotion to her faith and family. She was a longtime member of the First Baptist Church Alamo, where she found solace and purpose. Her life was an inspiring testament to the verse, "Above all, love each other deeply, because love covers over a multitude of sins." (1 Peter 4:8).

Mildred was a thoughtful woman who spent her career serving others. She worked in sales at Peebles Department Store and later at Jane's Fashions, Stephaine Browns Dress Shop, and My Sisters Closet. After her retirement, she served her community as a cook at Humboldt Nursing Home. She was also a dedicated caregiver, sitting with the elderly in Crockett County for many years. An active participant in her children's lives, she supported them in Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, and beyond, always doing anything and everything for her children. She was a pillar of strength and love, keeping her family together.

Mildred is survived by her son, Robert Jr., and her grandchildren Hayley Walker (Justice), Hunter Brinkey (Laura Kate), and Robert Reed (Kelsey). She was preceded in death by her parents, James "Jim" Privett and Odell Privett; her daughter, Laura Michelle Reed; her brothers, Lawson and Jerry Privett; her half-sister, Laverne Privett; and her husband, Bob Skelton.

A visitation will be held for Mildred at Ronk Funeral Home, 106 South Bells Street, Alamo, Tennessee, 38001, on Friday, March 28, 2025, from 11:00 until 1:00pm. The funeral service, conducted by Bro. Ken Skelton, will follow at 1:00pm at the same location. Mildred will be laid to rest in Oakview Memorial Park Cemetery.
