I was very glad The Courier reported on the wild caught catfish from Pickwick and the concerns about large amounts of PCB's found in the specimens tested. It has been a very long time since I had an opportunity to eat any lake catfish, but there are plenty of local restaurants serving farm raised catfish, which are not in danger of the chemicals. Eat local and enjoy.

Mrs. Ruby Sawner called and offered to share some of her flowers. She shared her love of growing things and said she had Rose of Sharon, which I always called Althea bushes, and Golden Rain Tree which is beautiful yellow blossoms. Mrs. Ruby said she has many young bushes she would be happy to share. Now that I have so much sunlight after removing 12 trees, I am eager to be able to put some color around my yard.
The women's Bible study of St. Peter's by the Lake organized a baby shower for Lauren Wardlow, one of our newest members. She and Kelby are expecting their first baby. Mrs. Faye Lindberg hosted the event, and everything was so beautifully decorated for the occasion. It was a joy to see the precious smiles and sparkling eyes of the expectant mother. I think we ladies enjoyed shopping for the little one as much as Lauren enjoyed the gifts.

I always enjoy a trip to Stantonville to shop the Amish offerings. There were lots of small garden plants to be purchased, well-crafted baskets, large variety of canned goods, and some fresh baked goods, too. We are never able to go to all the homes that offer goods for sale, but we made about five stops. I am eager to go back in a few weeks when the vegetables begin to ripen for sale.

Sunday was Mother's Day, and it was also my oldest daughter's birthday. Clara's birthday always falls on May 11, but Mother's Day doesn't, so it is a rare treat when we celebrate the same day for different reasons.
I was so happy to get my neighbor back home from her trip to Italy. I know she had a great time, but I sure missed her while she was gone. David and I lived in rural Fayette County. Our neighbors were acres away. Hardin County is the best place I have ever lived. Neighbors, no matter where they are originally from, feel more like family around here. When I buy local, I feel like I buy from family. Embrace where you live because it is like no other.

David and I are planning to visit Yellowstone this year. Neither of us have ever been there. I just finished the book, The Yellowstone by Winfred Blevins. It is a western fiction set in the mid 1800s. I am sure things in Yellowstone will not match the images discussed in the book, but it was an intriguing story.

St Peter's by the Lake Anglican Church is having a huge rummage sale that will be held at two locations. The Church office is located at 9195 TN-57, Counce. The other location is next door to Nuevo Vallarta Restaurant on TN-57. Everything except clothing will be sold May 29 - June 7.
Happy birthday wishes to Becky Gossett.

Cool days with lots of rain clouds made outside activities for Mother's Day Sunday "iffy". We were invited to the home of Alex and Kenlee Parish of Adamsville for the evening meal. Gaye and I enjoyed some of Alex and Kenlee's family on the lawn for a cookout. We were met at the car by Alex who teasingly told me he put up a large tent for me in case of rain before he grilled. Little Rhett was cheerfully riding his miniature toy backhoe around the driveway. There were approximately 20 people who enjoyed the delicious food and outside lawn poolside. Thanks to Alex and Kenlee for hosting this event.

At Eureka Methodist

Church Sunday morning a special recognition of mothers present and a special program before the sermon was held. All mothers were presented a small gift before special recognition. Mary Baker was the eldest mom present. Jackie Sullivan Christopher was the youngest mother and Patsy Gibbs was recognized for most decedents. The children present assisted with the program. Rev. Dennis Usner brought a very interesting message concerning two different women in the Bible. Visitors are always welcome at Eureka Methodist Church for Sunday School at 10 a.m. and worship services at 11 a.m. each Sunday.
Last week on Monday I was surprised at home with a visit from Jill Rose who knew I was being visited for the first time by Amanda Handley and children, Jackson Atkins, Madelyn Handley and baby boy Jeron James Handley. Dad Scottie Handley was busy with his job as a military trainer in Smyrna, TN.

Scottie is my great-nephew, the son of the late Danny Handley and I was thrilled to visit with this family and meet the youngest Handley boy in our large family.
The warmer days and frequent rains are pushing seedlings up in many vegetable gardens. There are many good memories of growing and preserving vegetables in the summer many years ago. Cathy Robinson tells me her veggies are growing well at her Walker Town home. The roses are in full bloom in many local lawns. It is a great time to be outside.
Congratulations to Mason Mitchell on receiving his college diploma last week from the University of North Alabama. Mason received his degree in History and other subjects on Friday. He is a great asset to our Eureka Church family. Mason had his mom Tara Browder and both grandmothers Bernadette Talley and Pat Mitchell with him at Eureka worship on Sunday. Last Wednesday I accompanied my daughter Gaye Gibbs to Jackson where she had an appointment. Gaye dropped me off at the home of my childhood friend Brenda Austin McNiell and husband Gerald. The McNiells are facing some health problems and I was thrilled to visit with them for a few hours. Both are keeping busy with their acreage, large house and the many animals they own. Inside the house are a sweet little Yorkie dog, Marie, and two beautiful Siamese cats. Outside was a duck pond, peacocks yelling, a solid white cat and two large dogs among dozens of flower beds and shrubs. The McNeills tell me it keeps them very busy. What a great visit I had to enjoy.

My grandson, Tyler Stanfill, tells me he only has a few more days of this school year left. He will be a sophomore at HCHS next year and is thrilled he has been chosen to participate in the Tiger Radio program next year. Tyler is a great help to his dad and mom in their illnesses. He was great to help me on Mother's Day.

A wonderful verse of encouragement from the Bible in Romans 12:12,

"Be joyful in hope, patient in affliction, faithful in prayer." From the Apostle Paul.
Have a great week and enjoy each day in rural Tennessee. Congrats to all the seniors graduating high school next week.
Patricia Shelby sends happy birthday wishes to Becky Wilkes May 13, Coe Tedford May 14, Gary Jennings and Kathy Baugus May 17 and happy anniversary to Rayford and Janice Smith May 15 and Dennis and Susan Warren May 17.
I ate lunch with Charles at the nursing home Sunday. We enjoyed that.
