On the Record

Sept 29 - Oct. 3

Savannah Police Dept.

The following items are derived directly from official Savannah Police Department reports and spokesmen.

September 29

At approximately 5 p.m., Michael Luis Castro, 36, of Savannah was arrested for Aggravated Domestic Assault, False Imprisonment, Driving On Suspended.

Officers were dispatched to 70 Squaw Street in Savannah due to a domestic. In route dispatch notified officers that the male subject had left the residence in a white Ford F-350 pickup and gave officers his direction. Officers went to the area and spotted the truck on Bain Road. He ran the tag to verify who it was and conducted a traffic stop on Stout St. at Gillis's. Another officer arrived at the traffic stop and had the other officer have the driver exit the truck. The driver was identified as Luis Castro. He smelt of an alcoholic beverage. He immediately started telling officers that he was going to jail before we had a chance to explain anything to him. One officer detained Luis and while the other was speaking with Luis they observed fingernail scratches on one side of his face and the upper left part of his chest. The officer then moved to 70 Squaw St. to speak with the other party. The officer arrived at approximately 6:10 p.m. and was met by the victim. The officer immediately observed multiple red marks, dark blue marks on one of her eyes with fresh bruising on her arms and a cut or laceration behind her left ear inside her hair on her head. The officer notified dispatch to start EMS due to the head injury. The victim stated that during the first part of Castro's attack she could not remember and did not have memory of it but that she woke up on the floor with his hands around her neck between the bed and the table beside the bed. Due to her temporary memory loss and the injury of the head EMS and Fire both checked her. Once EMS got the victim in the ambulance and evaluated her they determined she needed to go to the ER because her pupils in her eyes were slightly different sizes and changing showing possible suffocation or a concussion.

She had already started a statement form but the officer gave that to her to carry with her and told her to worry about that later and let them check her out first and then she could contact officers when her statement form was finished. She contacted officers at approximately 8:45 p.m. and the officer went to the ER to transport her to her truck that Castro was driving and to collect her statement forms.

While officers were still on the traffic stop, officers performed SFST's on Castro. Dispatch did also advise that Castro had a suspended license status. The victim stated to officers that she was at the kitchen sink doing some dishes and preparing to make dinner. She stated Castro was on the phone with a friend and was messing around with her and she does not believe that he meant to hurt her but he had been drinking and when he bumped or pushed her into the counter she asked him to stop because it hurt. She stated that he got upset that she said that with his friend on the phone and would not stop mouthing her and being upset so she left the kitchen, went to the bedroom, got on the bed with the remote to start a cartoon. She stated sometimes when he's like this if she will separate herself from him he will calm down. She stated he then came into the bedroom and slapped the remote out of her hand and then attacked her on the bed. She stated somewhere in this moment is where she blacked out and she can't remember how she ended up on the floor between the bed and the nightstand but that when she came to he had his hands around her throat and she started to fight back. He kept fighting her, she stated as he put both his hands over her face trying to suffocate her at which point she stated she could not breathe for a moment and she opened her mouth to gasp for air and one of his fingers went into her mouth so she bit it really hard and he crammed a finger into her left eye and was hitting her. She stated that she was trying to push him off which officers did observe those fingernail scratches on his person. She stated that when he got off of her that she tried to leave but he blocked her and would not let her leave, until he saw that she had dialed 911 with her phone hidden down by her side and he then left in her truck. She told officers that they could come in and observe the room so officers went in the house and observed the remote in the hallway just outside the bedroom. The bed had been moved across the room in front of a window and air conditioner shoving a nightstand out of its place as well. On the other side of the bed where she stated she came too on the floor there was blood on the wall next to that nightstand and a little bit of blood on a white T-shirt wadded up on the floor next to that nightstand. She said she could not remember exactly what happened to her head but it appears her head had hit the nightstand and the wall as he threw her onto the floor and got on top of her. Pictures were taken of her bodily injuries, of the room, wall, t-shirt, and the remote in the hallway. She stated that she did have an order of protection on Luis that expired in July of 2026 and dispatch confirmed it. Luis Castro is charged with Driving on a Suspended License Aggravated Domestic Assault and False Imprisonment.

October 1

At approximately 3:47 a.m., Joshua A. Armstrong, 47, of Savannah, was arrested for Domestic assault and Abuse of a vulnerable adult.

Officers responded to 80 Aker Circle, in regard to a verbal domestic. Upon arrival, an officer was speaking with the victim on the porch while another was out in the yard with Joshua Armstrong. Victim stated that she and Armstrong had an argument and he made threats to physically harm her. During the argument, Armstrong threw a canned beverage that struck a mirror, causing it to fall and break. Victim suffers from a brain tumor and is classified as a vulnerable adult that requires supervision and assistance. Due to the argument and Armstrong's self admittance to throwing the beverage, which placed the victim in fear of her safety, Armstrong was taken into custody for domestic assault and abuse of a vulnerable adult. Armstrong was then transported to Hardin County Jail for booking.

At approximately 10:15 p.m., Jaydon Neal Daniel, 23, of Savannah was arrested for domestic assault and resisting arrest.

Officers were approached at Dodges by a female subject who stated she had just ran from her husband's house to Dodges because he was assaulting her. She identified herself and identified her husband as Jaydon Daniel. She did have visible scrape marks and blood on her upper back right leg, scrape marks on her right shin, and some blood on her right thigh. Officers stayed on scene to wait for EMS to arrive and check her. Another officer along with county units went to their residence at 175 Birch St. The victim stated that Jaydon had been sending her messages and videos with a loaded gun and claiming he was going to kill himself if she didn't come talk to him. She stated that after receiving these, she went to their residence to talk to him. She stated that when she arrived to the residence, Jaydon began yelling at her and being aggressive, so she began to leave. She stated that when she turned to leave, Jaydon threw a beer at her and hit her in the back. While still attempting to leave, Jaydon caught up to her and pulled her down to the gravel by her hoodie. When on the ground, Jaydon began to choke her until she was able to break free and run away to Dodge street. When officers arrived at 175 Birch St., Jaydon went to the front doorway of the house and would not follow verbal commands. The victim was medically cleared by EMS and refused to go to the hospital. More officers went to 175 Birch St. with the other units. Once they arrived, multiple law enforcement officers told Jaydon numerous times to step out of the doorway and forwards toward them in which he kept refusing and saying he was not going to jail, and for officers to just shoot him. Upon moving across the yard to a new position, an officer spotted a gun standing directly right of the doorway, inside the residence. Jaydon stated at one point "Y'all will be taking me out in a casket before I go to jail tonight". After several more minutes of refusing to step out of the doorway, Jaydon stepped back inside of the residence and was tased by Deputy Slaughter. Upon taser deployment, all officers on scene approached Jaydon and were able to safely handcuff him. Once in custody, there was one black .22 caliber rifle and one brown .22 caliber rifle located next to the doorway that Jaydon was standing at. An officer went to Hardin Medical Center with Jaydon for treatment due to being tased. Upon being discharged from the hospital, an officer transported Jaydon to Hardin Co. Jail for booking.

Please forgive me for missing my article deadline last week. I left Friday, driving to Dallas, Texas to spend a few nights with my childhood friend, whom I have known since we were 8 years old. We were surrounded by good weather. My youngest daughter flew in from Arizona and we spent several days shopping and catching up on the news in each of our lives. It was a beautiful day when I headed home on Tuesday.

Driving back from Dallas to Pickwick on Tuesday, I concentrated on getting ready for Counce Counts Fair on Friday. Local crafters and artisans, food choices from the kitchen, were all lined up. Outdoor booths where you can learn more about our local Coast Guard safety classes, an on-site Real Estate guru, and our churches - the folks who serve our community. At the District 3 Community Center, for two whole days, beginning at 9 a.m. last Friday.

The US Coast Guard Auxiliary shared their skills and offerings to the community, as they displayed one of their watercraft outside the District 3 Community Center. The community really supported their Community Center, in this ninth annual event, and had a home-town, country good time while doing it. I saw as many hugs as anything else, I think, and we had a grand time. The fun wrapped up on Saturday afternoon. The good times and another community gathering seemed to tuck themselves away to wait for next fall.

St. Peter's by the Lake Anglican Church will host their rummage sale beginning on October 24. A warehouse of donated decor both small and large items, seasonal items, small furniture, kitchen wares, and more will be on sale soon to recreate your space. The location for the sale this year is in the warehouse building across the street from Nuevo Vallarta Mexican restaurant on Hwy 57 in Counce.

Painting with Pattie will be held at the District 3 Community Center beginning at 1 p.m. on Thursday, October 22. All seniors welcome. No supplies required to get started. Come paint with us!
